

NANAJI DESHMUKH VETERINARY SCIENCE UNIVERSITY, JABALPUR-482004
OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF INSTRUCTION

No. 1002/DI/ NDVSU/2022

Date: 29/7/2022

NOTIFICATION

It is brought to the notice of all concerned that the admissions to various post graduate programmes (M.V.Sc. / M.F.Sc. / Ph.D.) of Nanaji Deshmukh Veterinary Science University, Jabalpur for the academic session 2022-23 will be done on the basis of scores obtained in the All India Entrance Examination-2022 of ICAR conducted by the National Testing Agency (NTA). The University will not conduct/arrange any separate examination for admission to these PG programmes. Candidates who are desirous of taking admission in postgraduate programmes of this University may apply online from 20.07.2022 to 19.08.2022 for AIEEE-PG and AICE JRF/SRF (Ph.D.) of ICAR to be conducted by NTA. Before submitting online application students should go through the information bulletin of above examination to ascertain their eligibility and to carefully select the stream. The candidates are advised to regularly visit ICAR/NTA website for any updates in this regard.

For admission in M.V.Sc. (Wildlife Health Management) the candidates from Veterinary science stream will be considered. However, for admission in M.Sc./Ph.D. Animal Biotechnology (for candidates of non-veterinary stream) and Ph.D. in Wildlife Health Management only, University will conduct / arrange separate examination, as ICAR does not conduct examination for admission in these PG/Ph.D. programmes.
